Seasonal Colour Palettes

This season is all about embracing warm, deep, rich tones that bring depth and character to your space. Deep cherry reds and dark, earthy tones are making their way into the spotlight this AW season, whilst old faithfuls like burnt oranges, deep forest greens, and inky navy hues are back in action for the coming months.

These colours are versatile, comforting, and perfectly inviting for a time where you'll be spending a little more time indoors enjoying your home comforts.

Styling tip:

Go bold. Stripes and checks are classic enough to feel timeless, yet bold enough to make a statement in any room. It's the perfect way to incorporate bright colours into your space.

Room-by-room styling tips

LIVING ROOM

The hub for all things autumn/winter, create a cosy chill space for movie marathons and board game nights.

- Create a focal point with a statement sofa (think deep, rich tones like Teal or Fern) and add depth and layers with cushions and throws in complementary tones.
- A neutral, earthy-toned rug softens the palette and brings a calming air to the room whilst giving space for the sofa to show off its colour.
- Add ambient lighting with earthy or chrome finishes for an inviting glow.

Styling tip: Whether through velvet armchairs, lacquered tables, or small decorative accents, rich hues energise the space and breaks from muted minimalism.

DINING ROOM

Build a warm, inviting space for Friday night dinner parties and cosy Sunday lunches.

- Style a wood neutral-toned dining table with deep navy or clay-toned runners, and plenty of tapered candles in muted reds or greens. Don't forget to light them for that warm, candlelit glow.
- Use upholstered dining chairs and benches for an extra layer of texture and a pop of colour.
- Incorporate seasonal centrepieces like dried flowers, eucalyptus, ornaments and large candles.

BEDROOM

Turn your bedroom into a serene retreat ready for early nights with soft textures and layered hues.

- Start with a warm neutral bedding, then build up the layers with throws and cushions in rich tones.
- Swap out your light summer linens for velvet cushions and chunky knit throws in earthy tones.
- Focus on lighting. Bring in lamps, candles, and fairy lights and say goodbye to the big light.

- Introduce scents into your space. Amber, wood-based scents, and spice-scented candles and diffusers help complete the atmosphere.

Finish the space with tactile furniture, think bouclé accessories and an upholstered bench or storage ottoman at the end of the bed. Don't forget the floors – a deep pile rug brings instant underfoot comfort and grounds the room.

LIGHTING

Lighting is your secret weapon for creating atmosphere, especially as the days get shorter and natural light becomes limited. This season, think beyond basic overhead lights and embrace layered lighting to create warmth, mood, and functionality in every room.

- Statement lighting takes centre stage. Look for sculptural forms and bold silhouettes that double as décor.
- Chrome accents add a modern, slightly retro edge, bringing shine to both minimalist and maximalist spaces.
- Balance the sleekness with natural materials like rattan, warm wood, and raw stone for texture and grounding warmth.
- Opt for warm-toned bulbs to create a soft, inviting ambience.
- Layer your lighting by combining ambient overheads, task lamps (desk and floor lamps), fairy lights, and candles to shift the mood throughout the day.

Styling tip: Don't underestimate the glow of a dimmable light. From energised mornings to slow, cosy evenings, adjustable lighting helps your space work around you.

FINISHING TOUCHES

As we settle into the season and begin to wind down for the year, your home should be a space that embodies comfort, warmth, and creativity. Whether you're looking to layer bold colour palettes, embrace new, rich textures, or infusing artistic flair to your home with sculptural lighting, the AW25 styling guide is here to inspire and empower your autumn/winter refresh.

HOW TO STYLE THEM

Whether you're indulging in minimalism, maximalism, or going bold or classic this season, here's how to pair these trending palettes with Swyft's very own fabrics:

- Pair deep cherry red hues with neutral tones like Pumice and warm wood for a statement contrast that still feels inviting.
- Burnt orange works beautifully with fabrics like Shadow to help enhance the warmth without overwhelming the space.
- Forest green and deep navy tones create a calming vibe when styled with soft, neutral tones like Bone.
- Use neutral tones like warm taupe to balance out bold colour accents like Teal, Mustard, Brick, and Indigo.

Styling tip: Bring the AW25 cherry red trend into your home with a single bold statement piece like a velvet armchair, glossy side table, or sculptural lamp in rich crimson. Balance the intensity with soft neutrals such as warm beige or creamy white.

SHADES OF THE SEASON

Use these shades as a guide to bringing autumn/winter perfection to your home this season:

- Teal pairs effortlessly with forest green and deep navy for a moody and layered finish.
- Brick is a natural complement to burnt orange and clay-hued tones.

- Vine is a rich hue that ties in perfectly with this season's favourite deep earthy tones.
- Pumice is the ultimate neutral that lets your seasonal accents pop.
- Charcoal brings stylish contrast and pairs best with lighter tones.

PATTERNS AND PRINTS

Classic prints that never go out of style are making their way back into our interiors this AW25: Stripes and checks. Whether it's bold, vertical, or wavy stripes, oversized checks, or quilt-inspired grids, these graphic elements are being reimaged in vibrant colour pairings and playful scales.

- Match a colour: Pull a shade from the pattern and use it in your plain fabrics to create a cohesive palette.
- Balance scale: Pair bold, oversized patterns with larger blocks of plain fabric to avoid visual overload.
- Play with texture: Use plain fabrics in velvet, linen, or bouclé to add depth without competing with the print.
- Keep one hero: Let either the stripes or checks be the focal point, with plains acting as a calm backdrop.
- Layer neutrals: Soft whites, greys, or beige in plains help ground bolder patterns for a balanced look.
